15th March, 2011.

Dear Ms Vanessa Barr,

I am writing on behalf of my residents here at Bupa Care Services Banora Point and my colleagues of the Diversional Therapy team. We are seeking approval from Tweed Council to donate a Park Bench on vacant council property between lot 9 and 10 on Ballymore court, Banora Point.

Our daily exercise routine for the physically impaired and mobile residents of Bupa is to walk with them to the end of the court to look at the pond and most times there are wild ducks/geese. To have a bench there under some trees would be welcoming and restful as the residents enjoy being outdoors.

We hope Ms Barr you can assist us with this request and arrange the necessary papers and procedures to allow us to donate a Park Bench with a plaque on it to read- Donated by the Residents of Bupa Care Services.

Yours Sincerely,

Lynette Wong
Diversional Therapy Team.
