Dear Troy

Thank you for further inquiry on the availability of any vacant Crown Land suitable for the location of 'tiny homes' in the Tweed Shire.

I applaud Council's interest in the supply of affordable housing but unfortunately Council chose not to participate in the Crown Land Review which would have identified all vacant Crown Land in the shire and provided a forum to explore its use.

Other councils in the region have chosen to be a part of this process and there may be an opportunity for Tweed Shire Council to re-engage with Crown Lands once this has concluded. I would be willing to approach the Minister to this end should Council so wish.

Kind regards

Geoff
