

Tweed Shire Council wishes to recognise the generations of the local Aboriginal people of the Bundjalung Nation who have lived in and derived their physical and spiritual needs from the forests, rivers, lakes and streams of this beautiful valley over many thousands of years as the traditional owners and custodians of these lands.

Plenty of interested locals participated in the Community Conversation on the future vision for Chinderah.

Locals show up in numbers to have their say

One hundred and forty people representing long-term residents, business owners, regular visitors, local Aboriginal and South Sea Islander communities and community groups attended two Community Conversations at Cudgen Leagues Club recently to share their vision for the future of their local area.

"We just think that it is good that the Council has brought us all together to discuss this subject and hope that we are all listened to and our views acted upon," said one attendee.

Vince Connell, Director Planning and Regulation said it was important that the community's vision for the future of Chinderah was central to Council's decision-making about how Chinderah changes over time.

"Council is committed to making decisions in partnership with the community and these Community Conversations were the first step in that process," Mr Connell said.

The feedback received from the Community Conversations will help Council create a shared community vision for the future of Chinderah to guide development of the Chinderah Locality Plan.

"The Locality Plan will combine the community vision with analysis, objectives and actions that will guide future decision making about the improvement of public spaces, infrastructure and how land in Chinderah can be used. It will help ensure the community's vision for Chinderah is achieved over the coming years."

Free motorcycle first aid course at Pottsville

The course will teach how to remove the helmet of a crashed rider.

Council is sponsoring a free first aid and low-risk riding course for motorcyclists to raise awareness around this group of road users during National Motorcycle Awareness Month.

During the month straddling October and November and marking the start of the summer riding season, motorists are urged to be aware of bike riders and riders are urged to ride to live.

To help riders ride to live, the course is being provided by the Local Government Road Safety Program and will teach them how to remove the helmet of a crashed rider, what to do in different crash scenarios and provide CPR.

The non-accredited course developed and delivered by riders for riders through Pulse Start Solutions will be held at Pottsville Community Centre on Saturday 23 November from 1 to 5pm.

Participants will receive some handy riding accessories, including a tool kit, wiping cloth and neck warmer.

Bookings are essential and can be made by emailing abrooks@tweed.nsw.gov.au

Milestone for Equal Access and Advisory Committee

For 21 years, Council's Equal Access and Advisory Committee has been advocating for and creating real change in the areas of access and inclusion across the Tweed.

At this week's Murwillumbah Show (Friday 1 and Saturday 2 November), the Committee will be working with Show organisers and Social Futures to continue this important work and celebrate this significant milestone.

The Committee will have a site at the show with lots of information about accessible community activities and inclusion resources free to pick up, such as the 'Creating Inclusive Communities: Business Toolkit'. 'Access at a Glance' signage will identify many accessible features around the showgrounds and make it much easier for people who use mobility aids to move around the show.

The team will also be filming a short video clip at the show to highlight the importance and value of inclusion for people with disabilities.

Meet the Council team at the Murwillumbah Show

Come and meet your local Council team at the Murwillumbah Show this Friday 1 and Saturday 2 November.

The team will be promoting Council's award-winning 'Emergency Dashboard', an online tool to help you find the information you need in an emergency, storm, fire or flood.

You can also sign up for the community engagement portal 'Your Say Tweed' to keep up to date and have your say on what is happening across the Tweed or meet our roving 'water drop' and find out how you can save water in these dry times.

Want to recognise the Tweed's environmental heroes? Join over

1,300 people who have already voted in the People's Choice Awards as part of the Tweed Sustainability Awards. Visit the Tweed Shire Council tent at the show and vote.

There will also be plant giveaways, free copies of the 'Native Species Planting Guide' and an opportunity to chat to Council's Sustainability and Environment team about what you can do in your home, backyard or property to be more sustainable and look after our environment.

In brief ...

Park safely and avoid the fines

This summer park safely, park responsibly.

Here's the top three reasons that parking infringement notices are issued in the Tweed:

1. Overstaying the parking time limit.
2. Stopping within a bus zone, inside a school zone.
3. Stopping on a continuous yellow line or within a no stopping zone.

This summer, park safely, park responsibly and avoid a parking infringement notice.

Saturday Sessions are brought to you by Council and Tweed Holiday Parks.

Spring clean with a free on-call household clean up

Spring is the perfect time to clear out any broken or unusable larger items that may be lying around the house and Council is reminding people to book in their free on-call household clean up.

Households with a domestic red wheelie bin collection service qualify for two collections per financial year, up to two cubic metres each. Both collections can be used at once if eligible and notified at the time of booking.

Booking in advance is essential and there is a two to three week standard wait time with a rotating neighbourhood schedule – this is anticipated to get busier in the lead up to Christmas.

Items are only to be put out one day before your booked collection date and Council is asking residents not to place items on the nature strip without booking. Items placed beforehand could result in additional waste that is the responsibility of the householder or possible fines up to $4,000.

Before booking please donate reusable items, place on buy, swap and sell pages for cash or find out what you can take to the tip for free (see advertisement next page).

To find out eligibility and requirements of the service, call Council on (02) 6670 2400 or book online on Council's website at www.tweed.nsw.gov.au/HouseholdCleanup

Levee repairs on track

Work to repair the South Murwillumbah Flood Levee is on track for completion by Christmas. Four of the seven sites requiring rock revetment works will be completed by early November. Work at another two sites will start this week. Workers on site report lots of small fish in the area checking out the refurbished habitat.

Marking flood history

Council is asking the community for feedback about historic flood markers.

A number of historic flood markers are proposed to be erected in parks and open spaces throughout flood-affected villages and towns in the Tweed. Council is asking residents to complete a survey to provide feedback by Friday 29 November 2019.

The survey can be completed via the project page at www.yoursaytweed.com.au/flood-markers-survey, where you'll also find sketches of the proposed signs, the information to be displayed on them and their proposed locations.

Anyone who wants to have a say but does not have computer access can write to acousens@tweed.nsw.gov.au or call Angie Cousens on (02) 6670 2400.

Have your say

Seeking feedback on Tweed's Business Investment Policy.

Council notification

Intention to repeal Tweed Development Control Plan 2008 Section A11 – Public Notification of Development Proposals

In accordance with the requirements of the Environmental Planning and Assessment Regulation 2000 Section 22 notice is provided of Council's intent to repeal Tweed Development Control Plan 2008 Section A11 – Public Notification of Development Proposals (notification DCP).

The notification DCP guides when development will be notified and/or advertised. The DCP also provides the timeframe required for exhibitions of development, how to make submissions and how Council considers submissions.

The intent and content of the notification DCP has now been updated and incorporated in the broader draft Community Engagement and Participation Plan (CEPP), currently on public exhibition, no longer requiring the DCP section.

Repeal of the notification DCP will formally occur following adoption of the CEPP.

Further opportunities to have your say on the draft CEPP

The community is invited to have their say by making a formal submission on the draft CEPP during its public exhibition (closing 15 November 2019).

You are encouraged to attend the last information sessions at:

- Kingscliff Community Hall on Wednesday 30 October at 6pm
- Murwillumbah Canvas and Kettle Meeting Room on Monday 4 November at 6pm

Visit www.yoursaytweed.com.au/CEPP to view the Plan and register to attend a Community Conversation.
