

In brief ...

Electoral districts review

Now is the time to have your say on the redistribution of NSW electoral districts.

The 93 electoral districts in NSW are being reviewed (including the seats of Tweed and Lismore) and if necessary the boundaries redrawn, to ensure equal numbers of voter in each district.

The last NSW redistribution was finalised in 2013, with the resulting boundaries in place for the 2015 and 2019 State elections.

The Electoral Districts Redistribution Panel invites written suggestions and comments. Here are the relevant dates for comment:

- 1 June 2020 – suggestion period opens
- 1 July 2020 – suggestion period closes
- 2 July 2020 – comments on suggestions period opens
- 15 July 2020 – comments on suggestions period closes.

For further information about the redistribution and how you can participate, visit elections.nsw.gov.au/redistribution

Apply for the NSW Get Ready Community Award

Tweed Shire Council is calling on organisations and groups working on initiatives to help our community better prepare for, respond to or recover from a disaster to apply for the NSW Get Ready Community Award.

Coordinated by Resilience NSW, the NSW Get Ready Community Award will recognise a community that has worked together to ensure locals are more prepared and better able to recover from disasters.

Applications close on 5 July and winners will be announced at an award ceremony to be held in September/October 2020, in conjunction with the Resilient Australia Awards (date dependent on COVID-19 restrictions).

For more information visit emergency.nsw.gov.au/getreadyaward or email GetReadyNSW@justice.nsw.gov.au

Senior Customer Service Officer Helen Sutton welcomes customers back to Council.

Our doors are open, welcome back

Tweed Shire Council's customer service centres at Tweed Heads and Murwillumbah reopened for face-to-face services on Monday (15 June).

Opening hours for front counters have changed slightly to 9am to 4pm, however Council will still be available by phone, social media, email and web chat between 8.30am and 4.30pm (Monday to Friday), as has been the case throughout the past few months.

As part of a three-month trial to support the re-opening of services in a COVID safe environment, there will be some changes to the way Council provides planning, building and environmental health advice, which will now only available between 9am and 12 noon Monday to Friday.

In the coming weeks, Council will trial an appointment-based system for planning and technical advice. Customers seeking advice on planning, building or environmental health matters will be able to book an appointment either over the phone, in person (Murwillumbah only) or virtual appointments and have the option to attend the Tweed

Heads office to phone or virtually connect to the Murwillumbah office if required.

In line with COVID-19 restrictions and precautions Council is:

- limiting the number of customers in the customer service spaces to 10 at one time
- providing hand sanitiser for customer use (before and after we serve you)
- wiping benches and EFTPOS machines after each use and additional cleaning of the customer spaces.

It will be great to welcome customers back but we ask that you:

- don't visit if you have cold or flu symptoms
- stay 1.5 metres away from others
- use card payments where possible
- use your own pen
- avoid paperwork unless essential.

Help for those doing it tough in our community

While things in the community are starting to return to some kind of new normal, many people are still facing significant hardships.

The Pottsville Beach Neighbourhood Centre and Murwillumbah Community Centre are vital community hubs providing support, emergency food and assistance to those who need it most.

These two important services operate out of Council facilities and due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the demands on their services has drastically increased and are unlikely to decrease anytime soon.

To keep these vital community support services operating, the organisations are asking for donations of food and essential items such as fresh fruit and vegetables, non-perishable food items, monetary donations, grocery gift cards, sanitiser, nappies and feminine hygiene products.

The community can donate directly to the Pottsville Beach Neighbourhood Centre or for more information, visit www.pbnc.org.au

Donations can also be dropped off at the Murwillumbah Community Centre. For further information and for drop off times phone 02 6672 3003 or visit mccentre.org.au

Susi's seven stretches to get you going again

In recent weeks, there has been a gradual easing of restrictions put in place by the NSW Government in response to the state's success in managing COVID-19. As the situation evolves, the sport of swimming will slowly return to normal.

Tweed Regional Aquatic Centres (TRAC) has reopened some facilities with restrictions in place. Due to the current limitations on indoor pools, group exercise aqua programs will not commence until further notice.

For more information on TRAC's facilities visit trac.tweed.nsw.gov.au

In the meantime, the TRAC fitness instructor Susi Thomas has pulled together seven of her favourite stretches to get you going.

Gentle stretching before and after exercise, or even just before going for a walk, is important to minimise strain and injury.

Susi said everybody benefits from warming up and keeping their muscles and joints flexible.

"Stretching should be done with gentle pressure, no force, just hold the stretch, relax into it and breathe slowly and deeply for 10 to 30 seconds," she said.

"The benefits are improved flexibility, reduced tightness and the ability to minimise strain and damage to your muscles, joints and ligaments, making your walk or workout safer.

"Look after your body, it's the only one you have."

To view all the stretches and be informed of the latest reopening news follow TRAC's on Facebook at

Welcome to Tweed JUNKtion – Tip Shop Treasures

Tweed Shire Council's Tip Shop at the Stotts Creek Resource Recovery Centre is open once again with a new name 'Tweed JUNKtion – Tip Shop Treasures'.

The Tip Shop closed in March due to COVID-19 restrictions and now with the reopening, Tweed JUNKtion fans and community members can still expect the same great quality second-hand items at bargain prices.

Additional rules now in place at the Tweed JUNKtion as per NSW Health regulations:

- 20 customers maximum allowed in store at one time
- maintaining distance of two arm's lengths or 1.5m from others
- practicing good hand hygiene
- taking extra care if you're around vulnerable people
- stay home if you are feeling unwell, even if you only have mild symptoms.

Within the first five months of Council operating the Tip Shop from November 2019 to April 2020, 6,175 customers recycled or reused items from the facility.

This 'less to landfill' initiative from Council has saved 108.72 tonnes or the equivalent weight of 63 Holden Commodores from going to landfill just in this short period of time.

The Tweed JUNKtion – Tip Shop Treasures is open Wednesday to Friday from 8.30am to 3pm and Saturdays from 9am to 3pm. Visiting the shop during typically quieter times such as midday or in the afternoon is preferred to avoid longer line-ups and wait times.

Survey for Tweed dog owners

Are you a dog owner in the Tweed? We want to hear from you! Help us understand more about you and your four-legged friend.

Council has partnered with Griffith University to work with dog owners to help protect the Tweed's amazing wildlife including koalas, beach-nesting birds and turtles. As part of this study, dog owners are encouraged to complete an online survey.

Guided by the survey results, Council will then roll out programs to support dog owners and their furry friends in their efforts to protect wildlife and keep your pets safer.

Griffith University are running a competition with the survey for participants to go into the draw to win one of five $100 gift vouchers.

Go to prodsurvey.rcs.griffith.edu.au/tweeddogssurvey to complete the survey by 30 June 2020.

Your four-legged friend could lead you to a $100 voucher.
