

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Overview

The following information highlights the most popular locations for wedding ceremonies and casual park hire and is not a conclusive list of all locations available.

Some locations have additional conditions or restrictions that apply. This information is mentioned under the location where relevant.

There is strictly no parking or vehicle access to any park or beach and gated areas will not be opened.

Times are in Australian Eastern Standard Time (AEST), Australian Eastern Daylight Time (AEDT) applies when applicable. Please keep this in mind when making your booking.

All areas are to be shared with the public. Approval does not allow exclusive use. Please be mindful that some locations can increase in usage during certain times for example, holiday periods, events, etc.

Be aware that only one wedding ceremony per location per day is allowable. It is best to call and tentatively book your location of choice to avoid disappointment. No allowances.

Council reserves the right to alter or relocate an approved event in certain circumstances. You will be notified if this occurs.

Approval is strictly for the location and time specified.

All additional signage located in each location applies to the standard or additional conditions that apply.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Cabarita parks, beaches and headland

Some of the popular locations at Cabarita include Cabarita Beach, Cypress Crescent/Palm Avenue Foreshore Reserve; Cabarita Beach Foreshore Reserve which includes the 'The Deck' adjacent to Pandanus Parade. The headland starts at Lions Park Cabarita, Norries Headland Park, Johansen Park with access to 'The Cove' Cabarita Beach, Norries Cove (Cabarita Headland) and Maggie's Beach.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

The location of 'The Deck' at Cabarita Beach Foreshore Reserve, Pandanus Parade Park and Cypress Crescent Palm Avenue Foreshore Reserve.

Cabarita Headland is an area comprised of Johansen Park, Norries Headland Park, Lions Park Cabarita Beach, 'The Cove' Cabarita Beach, Cabarita Headland and Maggies Beach. To book, refer to any of these locations as Cabarita Headland.

Cabarita Headland is an area comprised of Johansen Park, Norries Headland Park, Lions Park Cabarita Beach, 'The Cove' Cabarita Beach, Cabarita Headland and Maggies Beach.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Cabarita Headland will allow access to any of the abovementioned locations. It will also provide flexibility on the day depending on weather conditions. Maggies Beach can also be individually booked if the location of the beach required is further along. Don't forget to mention the nearest crossroads.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Crams Farm

Located on the banks of the Clarrie Hall Dam, Crams Farm offers over 14 hectares of predominately grassed land. Like all other parks, Crams Farm is shared use with the public except for 'The Dairy', a rustic style building which can be hired for all day exclusive use including power at an additional cost. 'The Piggery' is a popular area for group picnics. Doon Doon Hall is situated on the reserve and is separately managed by the Doon Doon Hall Trust who manage all the hall bookings.

Crams Farm is located on Commissioners Creek Road, Doon Doon. Head to the township of Uki and travel approximately 10.7 km along Kyogle Road and turn left onto Doon Doon Road. Travel approximately 5.6 km and turn left onto Commissioners Creek Road and Crams Farm is about 88 m further along the road.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Fingal Head parks and beaches

Restrictions

Wedding ceremonies along Letitia Beach to the end of the spit are not approved. Wedding ceremonies in the headland area (highlighted in red) are not approved. No guest or wedding vehicles to park in Lighthouse Parade car park.

No swimming at Dreamtime Beach due to dangerous surf conditions.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Fingal Head Beach

Fingal Beach begins from the base of the headland and travels approximately 1.2 km north to Letitia Beach.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Fingal Foreshore Park, New Fingal Boat Harbour Park, Old Fingal Boat Harbour Park and Dreamtime Beach

Fingal Foreshore Park is adjacent to Marine Parade, Fingal Head Beach and the headland area. Fingal Foreshore Park has a designated car park along Marine Parade.

Both the Old and New Fingal Boat Harbour Park are located on Fingal Road and adjacent to the Tweed River.

Dreamtime Beach access is off Fingal Road and is accessible via the old quarry road. Dreamtime Beach is not suitable for swimming due to dangerous surf conditions.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Hastings Point

There are several areas available at Hastings Point with Fig Tree Park, Cudgera Creek Park, Cudgera Beach and Hastings Point Headland.

School holidays are a busy time at Hastings Point with the camping area full of holiday makers. Ensure that you consider school holidays when planning your event.

No vehicles are permitted on grassland. All vehicles must use the road and car park areas.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

The primitive camp area highlighted in red is unavailable during school holiday periods. Vehicles are to remain on the road reserve or designated car parking areas and are not permitted on any grassed areas.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Kingscliff beaches and parks

Some of the most popular park locations are highlighted in green and the beach areas outlined in blue.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Jack Bayliss Park

A long narrow park located near Shell Street and Kingscliff Street ending near the bowls club. It runs parallel to Marine Parade and Kingscliff Beach.

Although Jack Bayliss is a long park, only one booking will be available for the park or beach between Shell Street and Kingscliff Street. When booking, please mention the nearest crossroads.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Rowan Robinson, Lions and Faulks parks

Rowan Robinson, Lions and Faulks parks all adjoin Marine Parade and Kingscliff Beach.

Rowan Robinson Park is situated between Tweed Coast Holiday Park and the Cudgen Headland SLSC. Cudgen Headland SLSC is also bordered by Lions Park which ends at the carpark.

Faulks Park is between the carpark at the end of Lions Park and the carpark along Cudgen Creek.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Ed Parker and Jack Julius parks, and Cudgen Foreshore Reserve

Ed Parker Park and Cudgen Foreshore Reserve are both bordered by Cudgen Creek and accessible from Sutherland Street.

Jack Julius Park is accessible from Vulcan Street and Cudgen Foreshore Reserve.

Sutherland Point has an access road off Casuarina Way to access Sutherland Point Park and Robert Dixon Park and South Kingscliff Beach.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Salt at Kingscliff

The development at Kingscliff known as Salt has designated locations being Peppers Frontage (area 1) and Mantra Frontage (area 2). Both areas include part of the reserve and the beach, so you have a little bit of flexibility depending on the weather conditions on the day.

There is a designated area for emergency vehicles which must be kept clear at all times.

Salt Central Park is another option. Other events such as markets can occur in this location.

When choosing Salt as your location, there is a possibility that another event may occur at the same time at the alternate location.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Restricted – strictly no weddings (red)

The restricted area is highlighted in red. This is a designated emergency services area and must be kept clear at all times. Breach of this condition may result in fines and penalties.

Peppers Frontage (area 1 – yellow)

Guests can park along Bells Boulevard, Shipstern and Malibu streets or North Point Avenue. The wedding party can move anywhere within the area highlighted in yellow.

Mantra Frontage (area 2 – blue)

Guests can park along Bells Boulevard, Barrel Street, Fairy Bower Street, or Cylinders Drive. The wedding party can move anywhere within the area highlighted in blue.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Cudgen Creek Boathouse Park

Approval is for the reserve area only. The jetty is in the waterway and not a Council owned or managed asset.

Extra conditions

- Use of jetty is not covered under this approval
- No vehicles allowed past the car park area
- No trespassing on the adjacent property
- Please be mindful of neighbours and keep noise to a minimum
- All other conditions apply.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Tweed Heads

There are many locations at Tweeds Heads near the Queensland border. Lovers Rocks for a hilltop view, Duranbah Beach, Duranbah Beach Park and Ebenezer Park, one of the 6 precincts of Jack Evans Boat Harbour, John Follent Park and Keith Curran Park all provide a water view.

Lovers Rocks, Duranbah Beach, Duranbah Beach Park and Ebenezer Park are all located on Coral Street with a view of the South Pacific Ocean or Tweed River.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Restricted area – Duranbah Beach Park

The area highlighted in red of Duranbah Beach Park is an emergency services helipad area and must be kept clear at all times for emergency vehicles.

Duranbah Beach is a popular location for many surf events. These events could impact upon a wedding ceremony due to the infrastructure, signage, large crowds and parking restrictions.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Jack Evans Boat Harbour

Jack Evans Boat Harbour Parklands is divided into 6 separate precincts. When booking Jack Evans Boat Harbour Parklands it is important to identify the precinct. The Goorimahbah area (precinct 1) is booked throughout the year for small to medium community events and the Anzac Memorial area (precinct 4) is where the RSL hold memorial events.

The precincts are:

1. Goorimahbah
2. Central Beach
3. Twin Towns Frontage
4. Anzac Memorial
5. McMahon's Beach
6. Chris Cunningham Park

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

John Follent Park

John Follent Park is a long narrow park that edges the Tweed River from Bay Street along Keith Compton Drive to Island Drive. Sections of the park can be divided by the nearest crossroad shown on the map below:

Bay Street to Frances Street

Frances Street to Florence Street

Florence Street to Solander Street

Solander Street to Hicks Street

Hicks Street to Island Drive

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Keith Curran Park

Keith Curran Park is off Island Drive.

The area available to weddings is in the parkland.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Afex Park and Marina Park

Accessed from Wharf Street, Afex Park is located next to The Ivory Tavern.

Marina Park is at the Wharf Street Terranora Terrace intersection and is situated between the marina and 'Ancora'.

Popular locations for wedding ceremonies in the Tweed

Marina Park is located on the corner of Wharf Street and Terranora Terrace, Tweed Heads. Situated between 'Ancora', the marina and Tweed River, Marina Park has become a popular location for wedding ceremonies.

