To Whom This May Concern,

I have recently kicked off a weekly meeting for Dads In Distress in one of your Banora Point Community Centre rooms which I am currently leasing at $8 / night from 7pm – 9pm

Dads In Distress is a non-profit organisation and no funds are provided to me to run these meetings I am paying money out of my own pocket for anything to do with these nights and only ask the Dads for small donations to help with the costs

Presently only a hand full of people turning up and so the donations are not covering costs

Is the Tweed Shire Council in a position to re-consider the fee for this room to assist us ensuring that DIDS becomes a successful meeting place for Dads in the Tweed and Gold Coast area?

Yours sincerely,

Peter Lewis
